  - WWRP
- Plans may be already on file with RCO. Check status at:
http://www.rco.wa.gov/grants/planning\_requirements.shtml
- Plans are due June 15, 2010
  - Submit:
    - Adopted plan and public process materials on CD
    - Hard copy Self Certification Form
    - Hard copy adoption resolution or ordinance
- Assistance
  - Lorinda Anderson, (360) 902-3009, lorinda.anderson@rco.wa.gov TDD (360) 902-1996
  - Planning Policies, Manual #2 on the RCO Web site

Cultural Resources

1. What are they?

- Archeological and historical sites
- Artifacts and traditional areas
- Tribal items of religious, ceremonial, social uses

2. Why the concern?

- It's our heritage, it's history; the sites are fragile and not renewable
- It's the law: EO 05-05, NHP Act, etc.

3. What else should I know?

- Many projects are exempt from review
- For local governments, RCO leads the process (unless on federal land)
- State and federal agencies lead their own reviews
- RCO has 2 flyers with more information:
  - Cultural Resources Program (an introduction)
  - Private Lands and Cultural Resources
